RE: Your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write in response to your Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('FoIA 2000') request, dated 17/05/2021, in which you requested:

Under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 please provide the legislation which would prohibit the following actions at publicly accessible locations:

- The photography/videography of the exterior of buildings used as Police Stations, Investigation Centres, Firing Ranges Armouries/Storage areas.
- The photography/Videography of interior portions of Police Facilities which have access to the public such as reception areas, visitors centres, etc.
- The photography/Videography of vehicle registration plates associated with police property or function.

Decision

When a request for information is made under the FoIA 2000, a public authority has a general duty under section 1(1) of the Act to inform an applicant whether the requested information is held. There is then a general obligation to communicate that information to the applicant.

In line with section 1(1) of the FoIA 2000, I can confirm the College does not hold the information you have requested.

For your information, most legislation is publicly available on the government website and can be accessed here: <https://www.legislation.gov.uk/>

Your rights can be found at the end of this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Legal Services

Your right of review

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 you have a right to request an internal review if you are dissatisfied with our handling of your request. Review requests should be made in writing (by email or post) within 40 working days from the date of our original response. We will aim to respond to your review request within 20 working days.

The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)

If, after lodging a review request you are still dissatisfied, you may raise the matter with the ICO. For further information you can visit their website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/official-information/>.
