

A whole system approach logic model – Leicestershire Police

Problem	Response	Outputs	Outcomes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Complex partnership arrangements. ■ Force structures didn't support a coordinated force response. ■ 25 hotspots accounting for 19% of serious violence in Leicestershire. ■ Serious violence disproportionately affecting young men – force campaigns not reflecting this. 	Diversion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Young people provided with a violence intervention project worker when in custody for their first violent offence. ■ Custody centres allocated separate, age-appropriate booking-in areas for young people. ■ Provision of diversion opportunities to young people at risk of involvement in violent crime. 	Number of young people working with violence intervention project worker.	Reduction of re-traumatisation of young people in the CJS.
	Communications and use of technology <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Development of an app identifying perpetrators and victims. ■ Creation of a social media campaign around knife crime. ■ Creation of a VAWG bystander-based social media campaign. 	Number of young people diverted from involvement in violent crime.	Improved data sharing between partners.
	Use of data <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Multi-agency data presented in a dashboard available to all partners. ■ 25 serious violence hotspots identified through multi-agency data. 	Tailored problem solving plans for each hotspot problem solving plan.	Improved engagement from young people on social media. Reduction in crime harm.

Problem	Response	Outputs	Outcomes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Complex partnership arrangements ■ Force structures didn't support a coordinated force response ■ 25 hotspots accounting for 19% of serious violence in Leicestershire ■ Serious violence disproportionately affecting young men - force campaigns not reflecting this 	Diversion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Young people provided with a violence intervention project worker when in custody for their first violent offence. ■ Custody centres allocated separate, age-appropriate booking-in areas for young people ■ Provision of diversion opportunities to young people at risk of involvement in violent crime 	Number of young people working with violence intervention project worker.	Reduction of re-traumatisation of young people in the CJS.
	Communications and use of technology <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Development of an app identifying perpetrators and victims ■ Creation of a social media campaign around knife crime ■ Creation of a VAWG bystander-based social media campaign 	Number of young people diverted from involvement in violent crime.	Improved data sharing between partners.
	Use of data <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Multi-agency data presented in a dashboard available to all partners ■ 25 serious violence hotspots identified through multi-agency data 	Number of high risk DA perpetrators and victims identified.	Improved engagement from young people on social media.
	Tailored problem solving plans for each hotspot problem solving plan.	Reduction in crime harm.	