

Operation Rasure logic model – Thames Valley Police

Problem	Response	Outputs	Outcomes
TVP identified in 2019 as one of 18 forces in need of a Violence Reduction Unit (VRU) to tackle and prevent serious violence.	Data and research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Use of serious violence dashboard to identify public spaces with a high risk of serious violence. ■ Randomised controlled trial (RCT) developed and implemented to target geographical areas (hot spots) with a high incidence of serious violence. 	Number of officers trained in hot spots policing, use of app and actively patrolling areas.	Reductions in serious violence in hot spots.
		Number of patrols conducted in hot spots per week.	Increase in positive outcome rate for serious violence crimes.
		Number of geographical areas identified as high risk of serious violence.	Improved use of technology and increased efficiency among officers.
		Number of operations funded.	Improved multi-agency and partnership working.
	Technology <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Use of an mobile phone app to enable easy identification of hot spots by patrol officers and the recording of targeted activities undertaken in them. 	Number of partners/agencies engaged with Op Rasure and hot spots approach.	Improved collaboration with other police forces.
		Number of forces the app has been shared with that are actively using it to run their own hot spots trials.	